Pittsburgh, PA - As Thomas V. Giel Garage Doors, Inc. celebrates its 60th anniversary, the Gibsonia based company introduces Thomas the Truck - bringing product knowledge and samples to customers homes - we bring the showroom to you.

Thomas V. Giel Garage Doors, Inc. (www.gielgaragedoors.com) began providing garage door sales, installation and service in 1950. Still family owned and operated, the company has experienced strong and steady growth in garage door sales and service for residential, commercial and builder markets in Pittsburgh and surrounding areas.

Thomas V. Giel Garage Doors, Inc. is proud to offer honest, quality workmanship and backs it up with a "Written Labor Warranty", and proudly follows the IDA Code of Business Conduct as well as Regional National Safety and Building Codes.

Continuous growth of the corporation has led to 28-30 full time employees, with 18 full time trucks to service their customers.

In 2010, Thomas V. Giel Garage Doors, Inc. is celebrating their 60th anniversary and the introduction of 'Thomas the Truck' in their new television commercial (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=84xuSekjS9c>). Priding themselves in the recognition of their fleet of sales, service and install trucks to cover the wants and needs of all their customers.

"While our company continues to grow, our mission is to provide quality service, and a great product at a fair price. We educate our customers, who are our first priority, so they can choose what best fits their needs" said Ed Giel, President and Owner of Thomas V. Giel Garage Door, Inc.
